

Juvenile Cases

Making a Plea: All juvenile cases are heard by the Judge. The fine may NOT be paid at the window until the defendant has appeared before the Judge. Summons are sent to the parent/guardian of all juvenile offenders. Parents/guardians are required to attend court with the juvenile.

Failure to Attend Court: Juveniles and their parents who fail to appear in court as summoned will be brought to the court by a warrant officer. Should the officer be unable to locate the child, the state will be notified and the drivers license will be suspended. Should the juvenile not have a current drivers license, the state will put a hold on the ability to obtain a license until the case is resolved.
